

Barbara A. Schindler, M.D.

The William Maul Measey Chair in Medical Education Vice Dean, Educational and Academic Affairs

Barbara A. Schindler, M.D. is the William Maul Measey Chair in Medical Education, Vice Dean for Educational and Academic Affairs, and Professor of Psychiatry and Pediatrics at Drexel University College of Medicine. She also founded and serves as the Medical Director of the Caring Together Program, an outpatient treatment program for women with addictive disorders in the Department of Psychiatry.

Dr. Schindler is a graduate of Boston University and the Women's Medical College. She completed her training in Adult Psychiatry and Child and Adolescent Psychiatry at the Medical College of Pennsylvania. She served as Acting Chair of the Department of Psychiatry from 1993-95. She has over 150 publications, abstracts and presentations in consultation-liaison psychiatry, psychosomatic medicine, substance abuse in women and medical education. She collaborated on a multi-centered study of the effects of financial stress on the physical and mental health of academic health center faculty.

Dr. Schindler is co-principal investigator on a National Institute on Drug Abuse (NIDA) grant to develop innovative online communication skills and educational programs for medical students and physicians which has resulted in Drexel being designated by NIDA as a Center of Excellence for Physician Information.

Dr. Schindler has earned Fellowship status in the American Psychiatric Association and the Academy of Psychosomatic Medicine and is a past-President of the Philadelphia Psychiatric Society. She served on the Council of the Academy of Psychosomatic Medicine and the Philadelphia Psychiatric Society.

She is a member of Alpha Omega Alpha and is the recipient of the Commonwealth Board Award and the WMC/MCP Alumnae/I Association Service Award. She has been honored with the Association of American Medical Colleges Women in Medicine Silver Achievement Award, the Pennsylvania Psychiatric Society's Presidential Award and the Lindback Teaching Award.